

technology as a new pillar for economic growth while Tsangs Group's extensive networks would create a positive impact on Hong Kong's technology ecosystem.

Patrick Tsang, Chairman of Tsangs Group said, "Echoing the long-term development of Hong Kong with the latest development of San Tin Technopole in the Northern Metropolis, the strategic partnership of our family office with the HSITP aims to support more prominent tech entrepreneurs who are expanding to the Middle East market."

Tsangs Group further recognises the value of collaboration and is committed to shape HSITP into a world-class knowledge hub and innovation and technology centre.